Where it all began!

As we celebrate 40 years of Bluegrass family & tradition, we proudly acknowledge the “Summa Mumma” of the Thomas Point Beach Bluegrass Festival,

Pati Crooker-Mulligan.

Pati started the Festival in 1979 with a goal of creating a family-friendly festival for all ages, and it is thanks to her passion, drive, energy, and most of all love and laughter, that we look back on 40 years of Bluegrass memories today.

Thank you, Pati! “This one’s for you!”

Following Pati’s values of family and tradition, we dedicate this 40th Anniversary Festival to Harry and Marion Crooker, who founded Thomas Point Beach back in 1956. Thanks for all the wonderful memories Grandma and Grandpa!

There’s more than just the beach at Thomas Point!

Thomas Point Beach is a privately owned 84 acre day park, event venue and campground. It is the home of our own beloved Thomas Point Beach Bluegrass Festival! Throughout the summer months the park is used for family reunions, weddings, corporate outings, church and family picnics, and outdoor enthusiasts. Group sizes range from 1 to 8,000! With 85 permanent campsites, it attracts campers and beach-goers from across the globe who come to enjoy the simple and natural beauty of coastal Maine and the spirit of beautiful Thomas Point. The Crooker family's hopes and plans for this park, was to “offer a clean, safe recreation area for families and children.” This is still our purpose and this is the legacy we strive for.

Forty Years ago, in 1979, my mother took a gamble. She saw love, happiness, and community in a music she knew little about at the time, and she decided “I want that here, these are our people.” She saw beauty in the harmonies, the duets, she saw unbridled talent and craftsmanship in the duets and solos alike. And she saw family in the community.

I don’t know if she knew what would become of that first festival. I didn’t have the pleasure of being around the first time Bluegrass music played on that old bandstand. I wasn’t lucky enough to see the look on my mother’s face when, one by one, Bill Clifton, Bob & Grace French, Fred Pike, John Win, the Kennebec Valley Boys, Morse Brothers, Prindall Family, Red Rector, Smokey Greene, and White Mountain Bluegrass, took to our stage and started this tradition. Or the excitement in her eyes the first time Bill Monroe, or Del McCoury approached that mic.

Did she know the magnitude of what she had done? How it would affect everyone it touched? The tradition, joy, and memories that would all result in that leap of faith she took in 1979? I don’t know. But I know that since that day, she was proud and honored to welcome all of you back, year after year. To watch your families, and our Bluegrass family grow.

Thank you all for being a part of our Bluegrass Family for 40 years. Thank you for the laughter, the stories, the helping hands, support, and most of all, the music that inspires and guides us.

- Mike, Jen, Shari, and the Thomas Point Family!
Supporting Bluegrass in Maine for another generation

Very Special Thanks

It is important to us to give a very special thanks to our seasonal staff and support crew here at Thomas Point Beach. Many festival folks don’t realize that Thomas Point Beach is a fully functional park and campground from May to October. Thank you so much to Ray York, for keeping the park beautiful and healthy, we couldn’t do it without you! Ray started here in 1999 and this year celebrates his 20th Anniversary! Please be sure to thank him for all he does all season long to keep TPB a beauty! Thank you also to Jared, Bronwyn, Ana, Emma, Ali, Darlean, Loren, Caleb, Roger and Rufus for your customer service and dedication to our park and campground.

Thomas Point Beach Bluegrass

1979...The first time any of us here at Thomas Point had ever even heard Bluegrass Music, right here in our own backyard...life hasn't been the same!

40 years of Music & Memories

2002...Thomas Point celebrated 25 Bluegrass Festivals! And Michael Mulligan became an Eagle Scout.

2003...Official Festival Hiatus...the birth of the "Non-Festival" ...the music played on! And so many of you still came!

2004...Life changed, Michael headed to college and the festival "got back on track." The "Ryders In the Sky" played on without power and with flashlights.

2005...The Legendary Earl Scruggs appeared at TPB and Hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans. With collections from the audience and matched by Thomas Point, a gift of $4,800 was donated to the American Red Cross for the victims relief effort.

2006...TPB celebrated its 50th Anniversary of "Family, Friends and Fun". Zach Summers, Boy Scout and son of Jenna and Dana Summers, helped with the Official Opening, jumping in for Michael who missed his Opening for the first time in 22 years. The festival "Pick Me Up Award" was established.

2007...Charlie & Doris of Classic Collections retired at the end of the w/e after a long festival career.

2008...After thirty years of producing one of the finest bluegrass festivals in the country, the Thomas Point Beach Bluegrass Festival retired.

And our 2007 festival is nominated and WON "Bluegrass Event of the Year" by the International Bluegrass Music Association!

2009-10... There was no official Festival, but you all came anyway and the tradition continued...2009 Time Capsule was buried under the clock!

2011 ... The "Thomas Point Beach Bluegrass Special" made its debut and Bluegrass Music was reborn at beautiful TPB! Jen's first festival!

2012... Michael married the love of his life, Jen Wolfe in a beautiful ceremony in Bethel, Maine. We are so lucky to have her in the festival family!

2014... White Mountain Bluegrass was reunited on the Thomas Point Stage and Hazel McGee made her final stage appearance.

2015... The Blue Angels flew overhead and Pati wore a flight suit on stage in their honor. Sister Valerie led the charge to raise money for the American Cancer Society in her lobster costume. This was to be Pati's last festival.

2016... A Celebration of Life for Pati Crooker was held in lieu of a festival. Pati lost her battle with cancer on June 12. Hundreds gathered together Labor Day Weekend to celebrate her legacy and her spirit.

2017...The Thomas Point Bluegrass Festival made it's re-entry on the festival scene under it's original name led by Michael and Jen, with assistance from Shari, Jenna and the Thomas Point Beach Festival Family. For the first time in history the weather moved the show under the seating tent where Billy Strings performed a magical "In the Wind & Rain" number and the Earls of Leicester closed the show to an intimate crowd.

Our Mighty Fine Emcees

Cecil Abels II follows in a long-standing tradition of Southerners who came "Up North" and never left and he brings his Mississippi accent and southern charm to the TPB stage. He arrived at TPB in 1990, after the Navy moved him to the Brunswick Naval Air Station. He fell so in love with the musical family here that he credits the festival with influencing his Naval retirement to NE in 1997. His band The Bogus Family won the 1994 Showcase Competition. Cecil can be found camping-jamming with the Manic Mountain Boys and The New England Bluegrass Band at almost anytime night or day! And there is nothing "bogus" about that!

Dick Bowden made his TPB stage debut first as a performer with the Fort Knox Volunteers. His 1st year emceeing, he started big, bringing on Bill Monroe! He was likely upstaged by Pati in that infamous white dress! He is a mighty fine banjo & dobro player and has played TPB as part of The Case Brothers, Old Time Bluegrass Singers, and the Tennessee Mafia Jug Band. He never wanted to emcee, but Pati talked him into it and Old Slim Clark told him he was good. That was all the encouragement he needed. He has never emceed anywhere other than TPB. In his words... "I'd rather be jamming!"

Kevin Fennessey is making his TPB Emcee. Kevin came into bluegrass music at the age of 15. He has played in bluegrass bands most of the last 50 years and is also a purveyor of mandolins and other vintage bluegrass instruments. He has been attending the TPB Bluegrass Festival for the last 30 years. We were inspired by him when he spoke at last year's Sunday Beachfront Service and decided to give him a mic again! He is also quite a dancer! Ask him for a dance!

"Country Man Dan" Henderson comes out of the woods of Newfoundland about this time every year just in time for the TPB Fest. Although at other times of the year he may be found in NY, Maui, or anywhere he can be playing music and entertaining with friends. He has been attending TPB since 1993 and has played the festival several times over the years. He is best known and loved for his song-writing, honky-tonk music style, artwork, gourmet cooking, big heart, and great taste in wine and women!

Mike Robinson has been attending the TPB Bluegrass Festival since 1991, preaching at Bluegrass festivals since the year 2000 and now leads a very popular Gospel Sing & Jam -A-Long with his wife Mary at festivals across the country. He has played the guitar since he was 13 years old when a friend taught him 3 chords on a 10 dollar guitar. He is a songwriter and he was the lead singer in a New England band called the "Cowtippers." He is a seasoned emcee of 30 years and has brought on some of the biggest names in bluegrass!

In Memory

6:00 PM	Flight 317 with Carter Logan
7:00 PM	Old Eleven
8:00 PM	Sandy River Ramblers
9:00 PM	Back Woods Road

Emcee: "Mama Beth" Revels is currently Bluegrass Music Association of ME President, radio show host of WBOR'S "Mama's Mid-coast Bluegrass" and an accomplished multi-instrumentalist.

Flight 317- In 2008, a student ensemble group named Flight 317 was created by Carter Logan, of the band Jerks of Grass and teaching artist at 317 Main Community Music Center. Members are recruited by Logan and are high school students who will then rotate out as they leave for college.

Old Eleven makes its brand of bluegrass music with reverence, wit and top-shelf musicianship. Warm three-part harmonies and blazing instrumental work are the cornerstones of their unique and impassioned bluegrass music, straight from Maine.

Sandy River Ramblers-One of Maine's most accomplished bluegrass bands is known for its hot picking, stunning lead and harmony singing, and original songs about Maine. The band was organized in 1982, and has been continually active from that time. The Ramblers have just released their second CD of all original songs about Maine.

Back Woods Road- Founded in 2011, Back Woods Road is a highly energized acoustic band known for its tight harmonies, hard driving lead solos, and crowd-pleasing varied choice of music and arrangements. There's never an ordinary song for this band. They take it up a notch and one further. Coming in a very close second place at last year's TPB Showcase, we are excited to have them back for an encore performance!

SHOWCASE BAND COMPETITION

Showcase bands apply for entry through June 1 and are then selected by a panel to compete on stage. Their spots in the line-up are randomly selected. Be sure to take a listen to these talented musicians!!

Bend In The River from Connecticut features 2 young up-and-coming bluegrass pickers playing both traditional and new bluegrass music. The combination of the sibling harmony of Clara Guilmette and Evan Guilmette, with Clara's crisp rolling banjo and Evan's rhythm guitar, and the solid bass of Dave Casali makes audiences want to stop and listen to this dynamic trio. (bendintheriverbluegrass.com)

Grain Thief began as the solo project of Patrick Muloy and has successfully morphed into a 5-piece americana string band from Boston, MA. The group is comprised of Mulroy (guitar, vocals), Zach Meyer (mandolin, vocals), Michael Harmon (bass, vocals), Tom Farrell (lead guitar), and Alex Barstow (fiddle). (grainthief.com) This year they have been performing a festivals throughout the north and southeast US to great reception.

Local Freight Bluegrass band Local Freight features clean harmonies, strong pickin', and a solid groove. Seasoned musicians John Tibert (mandolin/vocals), Lynne Fountain (bass/vocals), Rich Piccarreto (guitar/vocals) and Brian Prindle (banjo/vocals) bring their varied musical backgrounds together on original songs and bluegrass classics alike, crafting a fresh, original sound, with solid traditional underpinnings. (localfreightband.com)

Mike Mitchell Band In his second year on the festival scene, Mike is touring nationally to support his second album, "Small Town", debuting at #2 on the Bluegrass Billboard Chart! With his "Mike Mitchell Band", festival audiences are demanding encores and return bookings. Mike's band finds there way to Maine from Virginia, Maryland and PA. (mikemitchellmusic.com)

Pretty Saro Pretty Saro, burst into the Boston bluegrass scene in early 2016, shaking up the definition of American roots music. Since then the four-piece string band made up of Maxfield Anderson (mandolin), Devon Gardner (fiddle), Alex Formento (guitar), and Joe Everett (bass) has been crafting their invigorating blend of contemporary songwriting, burnin' bluegrass traditionals, and modern sensibilities into a sound that is uniquely their own. (prettysaro.com)

The Ruta Beggars On the first day of class at Berklee College of Music, 4 of the 5 Ruta Beggars walked into a Bluegrass ensemble class not knowing what to expect. Ariel Wyner (classically trained opera singer turned mandolinist), Trevin Nelson (Nebraska native with an affinity for Banjo), Micah Nicol (bluegrass boy grew up picking and singing at local festivals). They soon added fiddler & vocalist, Sofia Chiarandini. Sam Smith on bass keeps them all on-time. (facebook.com/therutabeggars/)

The STEELDRIVERS

thesteeldrivers.com

This Grammy winning band braids their bluegrass roots with new threads of their own design, bringing together country, soul, and other influences to create an unapologetic hybrid that is old as the hills but fresh as the morning dew. This is new music with the old feeling. This is the third time the Steeldrivers will take the stage here. Hold on to your hats!

The GIBSON BROTHERS

Eric & Leigh bring their special blend of brother harmonies to TPB for the 17th time since they first took our stage in 1995. The brothers, along with the “other” brother, Mike Barber never disappoint the crowd. Their stage banter, instrumental virtuosity, soulful ballads, and songwriting genius combine to make every show one to remember.

THE SPECIAL CONSENSUS

Their sound is grounded in a deep appreciation and understanding of the genre; the infectious band sound reminds people of the past while utilizing the innovations of today. These four talented vocalists and instrumentalists follow their creative desires without straying too far from their roots. Special C played TPB in 2015 and we welcome them back!

LONELY HEARTSTRING BAND

The Lonely Heartstring Band made it's TPB debut winning the 2013 Showcase Competition. Six years later we come full circle as they play one of their final sets before beginning an indefinite hiatus. ## VOLUME FIVE
